We are sorry to announce that Mr. Bev Dewar has had to relinquish his post as Assistant Director. He is moving to the Wolverhampton area where he is taking up an appointment as senior lecturer.

Mr. Dewar has been connected with the orchestra since its inception in 1958 and has been involved in most of its major events, broadcasts and trips abroad in that time.

We would like to thank him most sincerely for all the work that he has done, particularly with the Junior Orchestra, and wish him the very best for his future.

Mr. Dewar's successor will be Mr. Tom Shearman who has already worked with the orchestra and whose services we are pleased to secure.
